Camp Pugwash Radio on 107.1 FM (Low Tide / High Tide: 5:11 p.m. / 10:18 a.m.) Sunset: 8:52 p.m.

President's Welcome

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore." Ps. 133:1-3.

I suppose that there are many things we could point to that we believe is appreciated by God, --faithfulness, obedience, striving for excellence in various areas of life. We could name a great many things, but very few would rise to the importance He places on the bond that we are to have together as His children. Indeed, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." John 13:35. Even from a quick reading of Jesus' prayer in John 17, it is quite evident the burden on His heart to His Father was that "they may be one, even as we are one." verse 22. What a better opportunity to pull together in worship and fellowship with one another than what is afforded at our yearly camp meeting.

"Let all who possibly can, attend these yearly gatherings. Return unto the Lord, gather up the rays of light that have been neglected, comply with the conditions laid down in the Word of God, and then by faith claim the promises. Jesus will be present; and He will give you blessings which all the treasures you possess, be they ever so valuable, would not be rich enough to buy." Ms 8, 1882.

I want to take this opportunity to welcome you to the Maritime Conference Camp Meeting, 2014. Your presence with us has increased our joy. I urge everyone to, not only look for God's blessings in all that will transpire this week, but that you resolve to be a blessing to as many as you possibly can. As our theme for this year states, 'We Would See Jesus.' May it be our constant prayer Jesus will be seen, not only through the messages preached, but in each of our faces as well.

The leadership and staff are here to serve you. Please feel free to contact us should you have questions or are in need of anything. We want your stay at Camp Pugwash to be comfortable and the spiritual highlight of your walk with the Lord.

President, Maritime Conference

Please Welcome

Richard M. Davidson (Evening Speaker) is J.N. Andrews Professor of Old Testament Interpretation at the SDA Theological Seminary at Andrews University in Berrien Springs, MI. He has been with the Andrews faculty since 1979.

Born in California, Davidson attended Loma Linda University, Riverside, California, graduating in 1968 with a bachelor of arts degree in theology. Two years later he earned his master of divinity degree summa cum laude from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. He also received his doctorate in Biblical Studies at Andrews in 1981. His doctoral dissertation was titled "Typological Structures in the Old and New Testaments." It is now published under the title Typology in Scripture.

Before coming to Andrews Davidson served as an associate pastor of a Seventh-day Adventist church in Phoenix, Arizona, and as pastor of the Flagstaff Seventh-day Adventist Church for more than five years. He was ordained as a minister in Prescott, Arizona, in 1974.

Davidson is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature, the Evangelical Theological Society, and the Adventist Theological Society. He has presented over seventy scholarly papers at professional meetings of these societies and other venues.

Davidson has written numerous articles for refereed journals and Adventist denominational papers, as well as various chapters in scholarly books. These articles, papers, etc. may be viewed on his website (www.andrews.edu/~davidson).

Additional publications include the following books: A Love Song for the Sabbath (Review and Herald Publishing Association, 1988), In the Footsteps of Joshua (Review and Herald Publishing Association, 1995), Biblical Hermeneutics (in Romanian; Editura CARD, 2003), and Flame of Yahweh: Sexuality in the Old Testament (Hendrickson Publishers, 2007).

He is married to Jo Ann Mazat Davidson who also teaches at the Theological Seminary. They have a daughter, Rahel, and a son, Jonathan. Davidson enjoys backpacking, mountaineering, mountain biking, cross-country skiing, and tennis.

Please Also Welcome

Jo Ann Davidson

Daughter of missionary parents, Jo Ann Davidson is also a fourth generation Seventh-day Adventist. She recalls her mother saying to her, "the blessings of being a Seventh-day Adventist have surely seeped into your genes and chromosomes by now!"

Formerly a home schooling mom and music instructor, Jo Ann now teaches in the Andrews University Theological Seminary—the first woman to teach in the Theology department. She earned her Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (Deerfield, IL) in 2000. Articles she has written have appeared in the Adventist Review, Signs of the Times, and the Journal of the Adventist Theological Society, along with a column, "Let's Face It," in the journal Perspective Digest. She has also authored the books Jonah: The Inside Story (Review and Herald), Toward a Theology of Beauty: A Biblical Perspective (University Press of America), and Glimpses of Our God (Pacific Press).

Jo Ann finds great fulfillment in her many roles as wife, mother, daughter, sister, auntie, teacher, musician, student and Seventh-day Adventist Christian.

Jo Ann will be the speaker/presenter at the 10:50 a.m. meetings from Sunday to Friday inclusive.

Mark Johnson President, SDACC

Mark Johnson has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church for over 38 years, 27 of those years as a pastor in churches throughout Canada, the United States and the Philippine Islands. Since 2002 Mark has held a variety of administrative responsibilities in Canada. He currently serves as President of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada otherwise known as the Canadian Union Conference. He and his wife live in Courtice, Ontario. Mark and Becky enjoy their three children and two grandchildren. Mark will be our morning worship service speaker tomorrow morning at 10:50 a.m.

Wrangler Cowpoke Camp & Day Camp Registration at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday at the Camp Office. See Sunday's newsletter for further details.

Please Also Welcome Our Evening Youth Tent Speaker

Justin Kim

Our evening speaker for the Youth in the Youth Tent will be Justin Kim, a co-founder of Generation of Youth For Christ (GYC). He is the Director of Communications and Sabbath School, and the Associate Director for Campus Ministries for the Michigan Conference. He is known as one of the best Young Adult speakers in North America and is highly sought after as a youth speaker.

Justin will also be the speaker in the Auditorium at the 4:00 p.m. meetings from Wednesday to Friday inclusive.

Also Welcome Daniel Latchman (Our French Speaker)

Daniel Latchman is the president of the Quebec Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. He has served in many countries in too many areas to be mentioned here.

He simply loves the Lord and is content to be known as a servant leader. Daniel is married to Yolaine. They miss their three children and two grandchildren who live far from Canada.
