PRAYER MATTERS

I'm going to send you the prophet Elijah before that very terrifying day of the Lord comes. He will change parents' attitudes towards their children and children's attitudes toward their parents.

Malachi 4:5-6

The word of God is a great help in prayer. If it is lodged and written in our hearts, it will form an out-flowing current of prayer, full and irresistible. Promises, stored in the heart, are to be the fuel from which prayer receives life and warmth.

E.M. Bounds, The Necessity of Prayer, p. 33

SPECIAL PRAYER TODAY IS FOR Pastor Victor Chant and Pastor Paul Llewellyn

Please Welcome Mark Johnson

Pastor Mark Johnson is the President of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada. He will have the 6:45 a.m. Early Thursday Morning Devotional Meeting.

Evidence

‘Where God is, things happen’

Do you ever long for evidence of the Holy Spirit’s presence in your midst? I know you must.

When I was a young girl, our family was called to church-plant in a dark county in Newfoundland. All that happened during that experience could fill a book, but after we left, one of our friends told us that they loved looking at our trailer at night and seeing the supernatural glow surrounding it. We were stunned and amazed! Really?! How could we be worthy of such a thing? Of course, it wasn’t about us; it was about God manifesting His presence in order to draw those who saw it, to Him.

How many times I’ve longed for a repeat of that experience – a supernatural revealing to others that God is there.

During our Prayer Ministry Team in April, we were having a quiet time for personal meditation and prayer. As I was standing in the window of one of our top corner rooms in the hotel thinking about all of the people driving past and of their great need to know God’s presence was there, I remembered having read this:

“Where God is, things happen. Where He is not, things do not happen. If things are not happening, He is not there.”

I thought of Acts 2. When the Holy Spirit was poured out, His presence was recognized by the people outside of that room. They came to see what was going on! I remembered our experience in Newfoundland, too, and I prayed that God would do something now to give evidence to those people that He was here, with us.

Our day ended rather late, and by 11:30 most of us were in our beds. One of our team members, Nicole Thorsteinson, was finishing up her night-time routine and noticed we were almost out of bathroom tissue, so she called the front desk to have more sent up.

Much quicker than expected, the knock came and the tissue was delivered. As the hotel worker was handing over the roll, he said, “Could I ask you a question?”

“Sure” Nicole replied.

“Are you a part of a prayer group that is here this weekend?”

“Yes, we are!”

“I knew it! The rest wouldn’t believe me, but I knew it!” he exclaimed.

“Could I ask you to pray for someone?” My son’s fiancée, Lynn, was just diagnosed with cancer. She’s a single mom with three kids, and she’s scheduled for surgery next month.”

We assured him that we would definitely pray for her. He left, and we started praying for Lynn, this man, and his whole family!

While there may not have been any glow, shaking, or tongues of fire, God gave evidence that He was there manifesting His presence to those who otherwise never know it.

HAPPY 500TH ANNIVERSARY!

October 31, 2017 is the 500th Anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation when Martin Luther nailed the 95 Thesis on the door of the Wittenberg church in Germany. Every church should have a Reformation celebration and find ways to educate our church members and people in your community. If you want to know more, ask the Juniors (ages 10-12) who are learning all about the Reformation through talks, games, and Sister Catherine. You can also ask Cheryl Hamilton, Marlene Michaels, or Pastor Dave Hamilton.

Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo

Just a reminder, (Primary/Kindergarten) children attending are to pay $3 to the teachers upon arrival and should be in their buildings by 10:30 a.m.
