IMPORTANT QUOTES

"And they shall see His face; and His name shall be in their foreheads."

Revelation 22:4

"Nash had remarkable power in prayer and was in the habit of making a "praying list" of persons for whose conversion he daily prayed in secret. The answers to his prayers sometimes seemed almost miraculous, for he didn't confine his "list" to those whom he thought might be reached by the revival, but the most (challenging) and unlikely cases were made the subjects of prayer, with results that were truly astounding...He prayed more and more; he used to take the map of the world before him and pray, and look over the different countries and pray for them, till he expired in his room, praying."

Daniel Nash

Evidence

'Where God is, things happen'

Do you ever long for evidence of the Holy Spirit's presence in your midst? I know you must.

When I was a young girl, our family was called to church-plant in a dark county in Newfoundland. All that happened during that experience could fill a book, but after we left, one of our friends told us that they loved looking at our trailer at night and seeing the supernatural glow surrounding it. We were stunned and amazed! Really?! How could we be worthy of such a thing? Of course, it wasn't about us; it was about God manifesting His presence in order to draw those who saw it, to Him.

How many times I've longed for a repeat of that experience – a supernatural revealing to others that God is there.

During our Prayer Ministry Team in April, we were having a quiet time for personal meditation and prayer. As I was standing in the window of one of our top corner rooms in the hotel thinking about all of the people driving past and of their great need to know God's presence was there, I remembered having read this:

"Where God is, things happen. Where He is not, things do not happen. If things are not happening, He is not there."

I thought of Acts 2. When the Holy Spirit was poured out, His presence was recognized by the people outside of that room. They came to see what was going on! I remembered our experience in Newfoundland, too, and I prayed that God would do something now to give evidence to those people that He was here, with us.

Our day ended rather late, and by 11:30 most of us were in our beds. One of our team members, Nicole Thorsteinson, was finishing up her night-time routine and noticed we were almost out of bathroom tissue, so she called the front desk to have more sent up.

Much quicker than expected, the knock came and the tissue was delivered. As the hotel worker was handing over the roll, he said, "Could I ask you a question?"

"Sure" Nicole replied.

"Are you a part of a prayer group that is here this weekend?"

"Yes, we are!"

"I knew it! The rest wouldn't believe me, but I knew it!" he exclaimed.

"Could I ask you to pray for someone?" My son's fiancée, Lynn, was just diagnosed with cancer. She's a single mom with three kids, and she's scheduled for surgery next month."

We assured him that we would definitely pray for her. He left, and we started praying for Lynn, this man, and his whole family!

While there may not have been any glow, shaking, or tongues of fire, God gave evidence that He was there manifesting His presence to those who otherwise never know it.
